Parish News on Thursday October 30, 2014. Items new this week are marked with yellow

Dear Friends,

- While last week's worship involved a more uniquely Lutheran flavor – Reformation Sunday, this week's worship involves a celebration of the church catholic, All Saint's Sunday. In the early church many special people were named "saint" and had a day set aside to remember them (normally their day of death). However, in time there became so many "saints" that a day was set aside to remember them all and November 1 was named that day. We celebrate the day on the first Sunday in November. On this day we look at not just certain people but all of God's people of every time, every place and every nation. We celebrate not just people but that all of God's purposes will come to completeness.

During worship this Sunday we will both recognize the newly baptized and remember the faithful departed. Since our last celebration of All Saint's Sunday we have had two baptisms and four deaths in the congregation.

Baptisms: Benjamin Garrett and Morgan Barnhart

Deaths: Russell Clever, Betty Henry, Merna Slabik and Helen Clever

- The 8:30 am liturgy this week is Holy Communion, Setting 1 from Evangelical Lutheran Worship. The 11 am service is our service of Holy Communion using contemporary Christian music.
- The Adult Sunday School Class will be finish the Wired Word discussion on prayer. Next week the series on Islam continues with Lesson 3 Jesus-the Bridge to Muslims'
- DON'T FORGET TO SET YOUR CLOCKS BACK ONE HOUR ON BEFORE SUNDAY MORNING!! Daylight savings time ends.
- I am still looking for photos of events that have happened recently at the church – Vacation Bible School, Easter Egg Hunt, Youth Events, Church Picnic. If you would have any of those and would share them I would appreciate it! You can email a couple to the church. I don't need or want all of them – just a couple from each event. Thanks!!
